Committee Reports:

1) Planning Committee: Clare Reinhardt

- Presented and explained the dashboard. Funding PTO, enrollment, budget, fiscal dependence, diversity, service hours are just some of the goals to be tracked. Adding survey to go to parents For their opinion and data collection, not too expensive and information will be added to the webpage. Parish contribution – must get regular funding vs. windfall.

2) Finance Committee: B. Barrett

- Discussed various types of functions for the Mardi gras and the current sales were for tickets (359), cash raffle (121) and tuition (525). Cost of tickets sales to cover CCNC expense of $16,000.
- Working on compiling 2010 – 2011 Budget. Considering potential ways for scholarships: sponsor student.

3) Institutional Advancement Committees:

a) Marketing Committee: R. Kruska

- Catholic School week was held even with the weather conditions.
- Enrollment 132, 150 would be good. EOG – may pick up more kids from middle school.
- Senator Coble visited; mentioned grants are not available to faith based organizations.
- $500k possibility for technology grant, IBM, Tandum are sources.

b) Development Committee: A. Melvin

- 1/28 at the Villas was the Donor Party, went very well.
- Adjusted Capital Plans. Temporary classrooms for August are still goo
- Little River Golf Club will be hosting Jay Vogel – talk about fundraising.
- Letters going out to Parrish for publicity.
- Developing a naming rights list.

4) Operations/Building Maintenance Committee: D. Regan (absent) No report.

5) Faculty Representative: Y. Stepnoski

- New reading curriculum is planned, establishing vertical team benchmarks, follow standards by Diocese and raise the bar to be a Blue ribbon school.
Catholic Schools week an event was held each day: Jim Dobson from the Pilot, visited the school, T-math was exercised with Chef Elliot assisting with homemade pasta, sauce and games.
With each days theme, dress styles applied, held a Brunch for parents. Best one in 5 years, was a lot of fun.
