For God, all things are possible Matthew 19:26

Virtue of the Week: Moderation. Attention to balance in one's life.

Dear SJPII Families,

Fr. Kane, Pastor of St. Anthony of Padua Parish, celebrated Mass with us on Wednesday. Grade 5 led the music beautifully and did a wonderful job! During his homily, Fr. Kane asked the students about the Gospel reading. Several students responded that Jesus questioned why others wanted to kill Him, even though He was doing the work of His Father, God. Jesus reminded us that we have only one God. Fr. Kane encouraged us to strive for perfection—though, as one student humorously noted, “it takes forever to be perfect”—so that we may one day enter Heaven. He also reminded us to be sincere in our actions and to love others wholeheartedly. His message left us with many thoughtful reflections as we continue our Lenten journey.

Join us for our final Lenten Fish Fry tonight from 4:00–6:30 p.m. in the SJPII Tru-Legacy Activity Center! Enjoy a delicious dinner and warm fellowship with our school and parish community. Don't miss this Lenten favorite—our last Fish Fry of the season is tonight, April 11!

Wishing you a wonderful weekend ahead!
Pax vobiscum, Marian V. Kajfez, Principal
