Dear SJPII Families,

This week, we were blessed to welcome Fr. Mike Schuetz, Vocation Director of the Diocese of Raleigh, who celebrated Mass with our school community. Fr. Schuetz offered the Mass for Isaiah Capps, our young student currently hospitalized at Duke University. We continue to keep Isaiah, along with all of our SJPII students, in our daily prayers.

Fr. Schuetz also spoke with our students about the seminarians currently preparing for the priesthood in the Diocese of Raleigh. He encouraged us to support them through our prayers and by writing letters of encouragement. This year, each homeroom and religion class will "Adopt a Seminarian" as part of this effort. We are especially blessed to have Seminarian Anthony May with us on campus each week, and our SJPII community looks forward to showering him with prayers and encouragement as he continues to discern his vocation.

All Family Handbook signature pages must be completed as soon as possible. Copies will be available at Curriculum Night tonight, along with a list of families who still need to turn them in. Please note: students will not receive their report card if the signature pages are not submitted. Thank you for your prompt attention to this important requirement.

Our teachers will be off campus tomorrow for a Professional Learning Day. During this time, we will reflect on the importance of our work by focusing on spiritual formation, academic excellence, and personal accountability at SJPII. We take pride in the strength of our academic program and are committed to continually enhancing what we offer our students. SJPII remains steadfast in its mission of fostering spiritual growth, academic excellence, personal responsibility, and service to others.

May your first official fall weekend be filled with joy and God's blessings!

Pax vobiscum,

Marian V. Kajfez
