Dear SJPII Families,

This week, our school Mass was led by a guest celebrant, Fr. Pete from Ft. Bragg. He delivered a heartfelt Valentine's homily on love, sharing the Greek words for love and illustrating how we experience each type in our lives. Fr. Pete encouraged students to reflect on these different forms of love and to take a moment to thank God for them. Additionally, the Visitation of Mary Baskets were sent home with the Choban family (Lyanna, Alice, Rhaena) and the Mendez family (Cici, Roman). We hope these families enjoy this special time of prayer and reflection with our Blessed Mother.

The North Carolina Opportunity Scholarship awards are currently being processed. We appreciate your patience as our Finance Department carefully reviews and reconciles FACTS accounts to ensure accuracy. Each account is being individually assessed and updated as needed. This should be the only time we manage such a high volume of account adjustments. Families can now apply or reapply for the Opportunity Scholarship through the NCSEAA MyPortal, with the application window open until March 6. We are grateful for the blessings these awards provide to our families. As a reminder, our policy remains the same: financial assistance is offered either through the Opportunity Scholarship or as unfunded "grants in aid."

The SJPII Gala, our Casino Royale Fundraiser, is just weeks away! A heartfelt thank you to our event chair, Mrs. Pellizzarri, and her dedicated committee for their incredible efforts in planning and preparation. Their hard work is making a meaningful impact in supporting our students, staff, and families at SJPII. We are thrilled to announce that the Gala is officially SOLD OUT!

Enjoy the long weekend as we celebrate American Presidents! Spring is just around the corner – think warm days ahead! 🌸☀️
